CLCON 18/04:

Hon'ble M.M.Ghildiyal, J.

Vide order dated 12.11.2003, this Court directed the respondents to consider the claim of the petitioner with regard to the selection grade as well as for as the pay scale as recommended by the Director in his letter dated 20.05.2003 to the extent of Rs. 5500-9000 in accordance with law after giving opportunity to the petitioner within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy for the order. This order was not complied by the respondents; consequently the petitioner filed the present contempt petition.

Learned Standing Counsel Sri Subhash Upadhyay has submitted that the respondents have passed order on 2nd Feb. 2005. The said order has been passed after affording opportunity to the petitioner on 6th January 2005 and after hearing to the petitioner, his claim has been rejected by the respondents.

Since the respondents have complied with the orders passed by this Court, hence the contempt petition has become infructuous and dismissed as such.

The notices issued earlier in the matter against the respondents, are discharged.
